

Questions to reflect

Making media a topic to talk about

- Which media heroes did I have as a child? What was special about them?
- What were the media rules in your childhood? Who set them?
- Which advertisements appeal to you in particular? What makes them stand out?
- How confident do you feel about the legal requirements like data protection, right to one's own image or copyright?

Photography

- How do I use photography privately?
- What role does photography play in our everyday educational life?
- With what aim do we use photography?
- When and where can I involve children in photography?
- What are the rules for photography in our kindergarten?

Audio

- What role does media play in my private everyday life?
- What effects does film music have on my experience of a feature film?
- What were my favourite stories as a child to listen to? Why?
- What role do audio productions play in our everyday educational life?
- When and where do we offer children the opportunity to make audio recordings themselves?

Film

- What is my TV usage behavior like?
- What is my favorite film and why?
- Who / what is my TV hero? What defines him / her / it?
- What impulses do I need to create a story of my own?
- What does it take to start a film project with children?
